Bomb Follows Marianna Arrests

MARIANNA, Ark. (AP)—The Lee County Sheriff's office said the home of one of the department's deputy sheriffs was damaged by a firebomb thrown through the picture window Thursday night.

Mrs. Winifred Brandon of the sheriff's office said that there have been no arrests made in the firebombing at the home of Jimmy Burroughs.

Mrs. Brandon said the firebomb, which destroyed the front portion of the house, landed near Mrs. Burroughs, who was sitting in the living room of the house. Mrs. Burroughs, who was not injured, managed to escape from the house with the couple's three children.

Mrs. Brandon said another firebomb was found in the front yard of the home.

The incident apparently stemmed from disorders in Marianna Thursday, Mrs. Brandon said.

There was also one arrest for curfew violation Thursday night, officials said.

The curfew was lifted at 6 a.m. this morning, police said.

Supt. H. C. Dial of the Marianna School District said classes were to be held as usual today at Lee High School.

Mayor John Omer placed Marianna under a curfew Thursday night after scores of blacks walked out of class at the school Thursday morning demanding that classes be canceled in observance of the late

Martin Luther King's birthday Saturday.

Omer said the curfew, which went into effect at 7 p.m. Thursday and was to end at 6 a.m. today, was a "precautionary measure." He said late Thursday night that no trouble had been reported.

Police said 20 students were arrested in connection with the school walkout.

Two black pupils were reported injured during the disturbance at the school. A spokesman at the Lee County Cooperative Clinic said Beverly Thompson received three stitches in the back of her head to close a wound. The spokesman said Juanita Wright, 15, was treated for head injuries and transferred to the University of Arkansas Medical Center in Little Rock.

A medical center spokesman said Miss Wright was treated and released Thursday afternoon.

Sheriff Courtney Langston of Lee County requested State Police assistance and Capt. Dwight Galloway of the Forrest City State Police district office dispatched eight cars to the scene. The troopers remained on duty through the night.

"We helped disperse the crowd," Galloway said. "There was no trouble. There was lots of jeering and shouting, of course, but no one was hurt."

Galloway said the State Police were in Marianna to keep outsiders from disrupting school.

Says Wallace Vote Only Helps Nixon

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) —

Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien has attacked Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace's entry into his party's Florida presidential primary, contending "a vote for George Wallace is a vote for Richard Nixon."

O'Brien said in a statement: "No one, including George Wallace, seriously believes Gov. Wallace to be legitimately contending for the Democratic presidential nomination."

But the Democratic party leader said today the Wallace candidacy is more "than a mere publicity campaign for a man who is certain to be a third-party candidate for the presidency."

"Democrats should be aware that a Wallace candidacy plays directly into the hands of John Mitchell as he develops the only re-election strategy remaining to Richard Nixon,"

O'Brien said. He contended Nixon can't win a two-party race and that his only hope is a three-way contest including Wallace.

The O'Brien statement followed Wallace's formal entrance into the March 14 Florida Democratic primary, and is the first public word from top Democratic officials on a problem that has been concerning them for some time.

They fear that a candidacy in Democratic primaries, given the large number of party presidential hopefuls, could make a shambles of the process before the Alabama governor returns to the American Independent party label on which he ran in 1968 when he captured five Southern states.

In Florida, for example, several polls show the Alabama governor either leading or tied for the lead in the Democratic primary, and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, already is saying the primary may have little value.

Kennedy Will Not Be Convention Delegate

By BILL KOSMAN

Associated Press Writer

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, consistently mentioned as a presidential possibility despite his denials of White House aspirations, says he will not be a delegate to the Democratic National Convention this summer but will be active at the session.

In a surprise development Thursday night, Kennedy said in Boston he felt it would be misleading if he headed a slate of his state's delegates to the national convention in Miami. He said people might think it was to "serve some other purpose."

It had been expected that Kennedy would head Massachusetts' at-large convention delegate slate.

The senator filed an affidavit disavowing his candidacy, a move necessary to remove his name from the April 25 Massachusetts presidential primary ballot. However, Kennedy said he expects to be "active over the period of the next several weeks and months and at the convention."

As candidates and noncandidates scrambled around many of the nation's 23 primary-election states—either entering or withdrawing their names—others carried on their politicking unabashedly.

Democrat George Wallace ran head-on into party stalwart Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey after launching what the Alabama governor called a people's campaign in the Florida presidential primary.

"I defeated Wallace in this state in 1968 and hope to do as well again," Humphrey, of Minnesota, told a Jacksonville audience Thursday while pushing his own campaign for the state's March 14 contest.

A dozen candidates are listed on the Florida primary ballot.

Would Exempt All Who Make $1.90 Hour, Less

By BROOKS JACKSON

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The

Cost of Living Council has proposed that persons making less than $1.90 an hour be exempted from wage controls, Pay Board sources say.

The sources say the board has asked the council for more information. The council sought the Pay Board's comments on the idea even though board approval is not required.

The proposal surfaced as the wage panel voted 14 to 0 to approve procedures under which all pay raises lost during the wage freeze will be paid retroactively unless specifically stopped by the board.

Under these procedures the board will approve automatic payment of many raises up to 7 per cent, but will take a look at several raises above that amount and all raises in pay units of more than 5,000 persons, no matter how small the increase.

On the matter of exemptions, the Cost of Living Council earlier had lifted federal wage restraints from all persons making less than the federal minimum wage, which is $1.30 for agricultural workers, $1.60 for others.

However, Congress has ordered that President Nixon also exempt anyone belonging to the "working poor," a term without any precise definition.

Various sources said the council, which retains authority over exemptions from wage and price controls, proposed that the line be drawn at $1.90 an hour.

Labor members of the board were reported pushing for a much higher figure, but apparently without much hope of success.

Wants Injunction on Gillham Dam Lifted

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers filed a motion Thursday in U.S. District Court here asking Judge G. Thomas Eisele to vacate an injunction that has halted work on the Gillham Dam on the Cossatot River in Southwest Arkansas since last February.

The motion was filed in conjunction with a revised environmental impact statement concerning the dam.

Conservationists had filed suit seeking to halt construction of the dam because they said it would destroy the last free-flowing wild river in the Ouachita Mountains.

Eisele ruled Feb. 19 of last year that the engineers had not thoroughly explored the environmental Policy Act of 1969. The engineers had submitted an environmental study but Eisele ruled it was incomplete and ordered work on the dam halted.

The engineers' motion to vacate the earlier decree said that with the filing of the new statement, the procedural requirements of the Environmental Policy Act had been met, and that Eisele should issue a summary judgment decree lifting the injunction.

The new study concluded that despite the arguments of the conservationists, it was in the best interests of the government and the residents of the Cossatot River Basin that the project, which is already 65 per cent complete, be finished.

Asks $15,000 to Make Film

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A committee has been formed to raise $15,000 to buy equipment and film a 25-minute color movie of Central High School's experience with desegregation.

The film, called "Project TIGER," was proposed last fall by a faculty-student committee at the school as an appropriate use of part of a $779,000 grant to the school district under the Emergency School Assistance Program Act.

Stage Is Set for Complete Pullout

By ROBERT A. DOBWIN

AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's latest Vietnam troop-withdrawal order sets the stage for what could be an April announcement to pull back another 35,000 to 45,000 troops, declare the war over and place remaining GIs in an advisory role.

Nixon announced Thursday that 70,000 more troops will be withdrawn by May 1, leaving the United States with the residual force of 25,000 to 35,000 men indicated by the President two weeks ago.

Thursday's announcement, covering February, March and April withdrawals, will reduce the U.S. commitment in Vietnam to 69,000 men on May 1.

And the President said he will make another pullout announcement before that date.

This is likely to come in mid-April, leaving 35,000 men to withdraw before reaching this summer's planned residual force level. That level is expected to be maintained until U.S. prisoners are freed by the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong.

This would be in keeping with the troop-withdrawal plan drawn up by the administration in early 1969. Although administration officials dropped hints from time to time that the President was reviewing the plan and might delay further withdrawal decisions as a means of keeping the enemy guessing, there has been little deviation from the original plan.

Under the phaseout program, the residual force would revert to an advisory role to assist the South Vietnamese, as was done before the big U.S. buildup began in 1965.

And, to enhance the idea that the ground war is over for the Americans, the U.S. Military Assistance Command, Vietnam (MACV), would be downgraded to an assistance group.

This would give the President an opportunity to bring home Gen. Creighton Abrams, U.S. commander in Vietnam for the past five years, and, perhaps move Abrams in as Army chief of staff when Gen. William C. Westmoreland completes his four-year tour in June.

Enemy Challenges Air Superiority

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnam stepped up its challenge to U.S. air superiority in Indochina today by moving mobile surface-to-air missile launchers to within a few miles of the demilitarized zone, threatening American planes flying across South Vietnam.

Two new aerial engagements were reported near South Vietnam's borders. In one, an F105 fighter escorting Navy bombers fired a Shrike missile at a missile launching site this morning within three miles of the coast just above the DMZ. The U.S. Command said it was believed that the SAM site was destroyed.

It was the closest air action to South Vietnam's borders in nearly a year and the sixth so-called protective reaction strike inside North Vietnam this year.

U.S. military sources said the North Vietnamese apparently are trying to harass American planes as they cross the northern part of South Vietnam to attack the supply trails in Laos.

In the second incident, an Air Force OV10 observation plane directing air strikes against the Ho Chi Minh trail in southern Laos was the target of an enemy missile while over the area of Sepone, 25 miles west of the Vietnamese borders. The pilot evaded the missile.

"The missile was fired through an overcast," the U.S. Command said, and the pilots were unable to pinpoint the launching site for a retaliatory attack.

In the ground war, North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces kept up their intensified attacks on South Vietnamese outposts for the fourth day.

The South Vietnamese command reported 24 more enemy attacks for a four-day total of 110, the highest in more than three months. Most of the action was in the central highlands, on the central coastal plain and in the Mekong Delta.

The South Vietnamese suffered their worst setback in Kien Hoa Province in the delta, where nine government militiamen were killed and 19 wounded.

In northern Laos, North Vietnamese troops overran two more minor positions within five miles of Long Cheng, the former U.S. Central Intelligence Agency base.

Pro-government irregulars reportedly recaptured the isolated outpost of Phou Cum, 25 miles north of the Plain of Jars, after meeting only token resistance. Phou Cum fell to the North Vietnamese last Monday.

Russia Kicks Out U.S. Representative

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet

Union ordered today the immediate expulsion of a visiting U.S. congressman who attended a dinner at the home of a Jewish professor trying to emigrate to Israel.

Rep. James H. Scheuer, a New York Democrat, was held for two hours by police after the dinner Wednesday night. He has left Moscow for Leningrad.

The U.S. Embassy said the order for Scheuer's expulsion was delivered by Georgy Korniyenko, chief of the U.S. section of the Soviet Foreign ministry.

"Korniyenko stated that the Soviet government was expelling Mr. Scheuer for engaging in improper activities while visiting the Soviet Union as a member of the subcommittee of the House of Representatives, headed by Congressman Brademas and sponsored by the U.S. government," an embassy statement said.

Rep. John Brademas, D-Ind., headed the congressional group.

"The Foreign Ministry demanded that Congressman Scheuer leave the Soviet Union immediately," the embassy statement continued.

Scheuer is believed to be the first elected American official ever expelled from the Soviet Union.

Scheuer came to the Soviet Union as a member of a seven-man congressional subcommittee to study Soviet education. The subcommittee ended its two-week tour on Wednesday. That night Scheuer went to the apartment of the professor and was picked up there by the secret police. He was released later.

Scheuer went to Leningrad on Thursday and is believed to still be there.

Lockesburg Man Killed

LOCKESBURG, Ark. (AP) — Pharris Webb, 73, of Lockesburg was killed Thursday night when struck by a car as he attempted to walk across U.S. 71 at Lockesburg.

State Police said the victim was struck by a car driven by Marvin W. Austin, 50, of Umper.

$270,000 for Housing

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $270,000 project for housing at Ward (Lonoke County) has been approved by the Housing and Urban Development Department, Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said Thursday.

He said the federal government will pay all cost of developing the project under the Lonoke County Housing Authority.

Urban Renewal Money for Hope

Congressman David Pryor's office informed the Star by telephone that the urban renewal project Part 2 loan and grant has been approved by HUD. The grant is in the amount of $250,000.

The money that was previously obligated was $238,343, making the total urban renewal project here total $2,648,343.

The grant to the Hope Housing Authority is for the central urban renewal project to remove blighting influence and provide land for needed public improvements and community facilities.

Prime Rates Again Drop

NEW YORK (AP) — Two major New York banks announced today they were lowering their floating basic interest rates 1/4 per cent to 4 1/4 per cent, effective Monday, cutting rates to an 11-year low. First National City Bank, the nation's second-largest commercial bank, triggered the move and was followed by Irving Trust Co., 13th largest. Both banks have floating baserates subject to weekly review and similar to fixed prime rates used by most other commercial banks.

Predicts Spectacular Enemy Political Raids

SAIGON (AP) — Secretary of the Army Robert F. Froehke predicted today that Communist forces will stage some "spectacular" attacks in Indochina for political purposes because they are unable to achieve military success.

Candidate for 12 Offices

STERLING, Mass. (AP) — Joseph T. DuVarney has taken out papers to be a candidate for all 12 offices in the town's March 6 election.

Town Clerk Lois H. Seifert said it was the first time she could recall anyone doing so.

The positions include those on the Board of Selectmen, School Committee and library trustees.

DuVarney said he wanted to run for all offices "to assure there is opposition against the incumbents." He said one candidate for town office was unopposed last year and "I am an advocate of opposition on the ballot."

"aren't unkindful that we are in an election year in the United States."

Froehke also mentioned President Nixon's trip to Communist China during the last week in February. Some analysts believe that Hanoi may launch an offensive to discourage China, which has backed North Vietnam with military and financial aid, from making any deals with Nixon on the future of Indochina.

Winding up a five-day visit to Vietnam, Froehke told a news conference:

"I presume there will be, as Secretary Laird describes it, some spectaculars for primarily, I believe, political purposes. I don't think they can achieve military success and therefore I have to assume they're doing it for political purposes."

"Based on what I saw, I am confident that from a military standpoint the majority, the vast majority of these spectaculars will prove to be unsuccessful."

"Also being realistic, I assume that in the weeks, the months ahead, that on occasion the South Vietnamese will lose an occasional skirmish. But I'm completely confident they're going to win most of them and they're going to win the battle."

Froehke said the Vietnamization program "is proceeding with perhaps amazing success."

He said that morale among the remaining U.S. troops "generally speaking, is pretty good."

Froehke flew to Bangkok for the second leg of his first official visit to U.S. Army units in the Pacific.

Laird Off His No Politics Perch

WASHINGTON (AP) — It took Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird only two weeks into this presidential-campaign year to climb off his nonpolitical perch.

Laird has been giving the impression for some time that he would stay above the political battle in 1972. That's been the traditional stance of secretaries of Defense and State.

But there were skeptics who knew of Laird's unabashed love of politics, his zest for partisan cut-and-thrust while a GOP leader in Congress and a top strategist in past Republican presidential campaigns.

So there was little surprise Thursday when Laird took out after Sens. Edmund Muskie of Maine, Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota and other Democratic presidential hopefuls who have been demanding that President Nixon withdraw all American troops from Vietnam by a fixed date, and soon.

"When we took office in 1969 there was no program to withdraw American forces from Vietnam," Laird told White House reporters.

"Strangely enough, some of those individuals that are going around the country today criticizing programs to withdraw Americans from Vietnam were silent in 1968 and before when we were on the escalator, going up and up and up ....

"Now that we are going down, down, down, seems that they have changed their position and are critical of the President and the program ... to withdraw Americans from Southeast Asia and from Vietnam."

Later, in a Public Broadcasting Service television interview, Laird spoke more harshly, charging critics with "either knowingly or unknowingly aiding the enemy and not helping our prisoners of war" by saying the U.S. prisoners would be released by the North Vietnamese if the United States offered to pull out all its troops.

Although Laird mentioned

Economy Slow During 1971

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's economy slowed dramatically during 1971 after a strong first-quarter recovery, the Commerce Department reported today.

In revising the Gross National Product, output of the nation's goods and services, for the first nine months of 1971, the department disclosed that the economy grew by only 2.7 per cent in the July-September quarter.

This was much less than the 3.9 per cent reported earlier and well below the amount of growth needed to cut into a high rate of unemployment.

Next week, the government is expected to release preliminary figures on GNP growth for the last three months of the year, and it is expected to reflect a stepup in the economy during that period.

The department said it revised GNP downward to reflect more accurate, up-to-date information and to take into account Congress' passage of a bill repealing the automobile excise tax. Repeal of the excise cut final sales in the third quarter and also helped reduce the rate of inflation.

As measured by the GNP yardstick, the rate of inflation also fell dramatically, to 2.5 per cent in the third quarter, the lowest rate since the 2.2 per cent in the second quarter of 1967.

Sees Bumpers Only for 2nd Term

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers will seek election to a second term, if he runs for any office this year, political observers believe.

Sources close to the governor have all but ruled out the possibility that Bumpers will run for the U.S. Senate seat held by Sen. John L. McClellan.

Bumpers has been noncommittal on his political plans, and refuses to speculate publicly about them. He said last year when he was asked in an interview whether he had ruled out a race for the Senate that he was leaving his options open.

But there is speculation now that the "most logical" choices of the governor would be to run for the traditional second term or bow out of office altogether.

Although not much weight is given to conjecture that he will retire to his Charleston law practice, those familiar with Arkansas politics stress that the possibility exists.

They observe that the governor seems to chafe at some of the demands made on him and at pressures that Little Rock living has brought to his family. Bumpers admits that some of his statements might be responsible for talk that he would like to retire from public life.

At the same time, he has said that his family comes first in his political future.

But coming off spectacular legislative successes in 1971, Bumpers talks like a man who wants to be around the state house in 1973. He frequently remarks on legislative items that he would like to support in the General Assembly next year.

A potential candidate in the senatorial race has said he finds no evidence in his checks around the state that Bumpers is looking at the Senate campaign, although the governor's name is mentioned frequently.

Bumpers is believed to have seriously considered the Senate at one time. Either Bumpers or his friends are known to have checked with sources of political financing and were told that no money was available to him for a Senate campaign.

Bumpers has incurred the natural run of political liabilities in his one year in office. But a legislator who said several months ago that it would take a major slip by the governor in order to lose a race for re-election says "he's slipping."

Other observers of the political scene say that Bumpers' popularity remains high among the voters, despite growing enmity among politicians.

"If only the politicians could vote, he wouldn't have a ghost of a chance," one said.

The arguments are that the governor has made political enemies because of his patronage appointments, legislative redistricting by the Board of Apportionment of which he is chairman and the assumption of more authority by the governor's office through the governmental reorganization plan Bumpers pushed through the 1971 legislature.

neither Muskie nor Humphrey by name, it was clear he meant them.

"I only have to refer to the last campaign," Laird said. "There were two individuals in that campaign."

Humphrey was the unsuccessful Democratic presidential candidate against Nixon in 1968, and Muskie was Humphrey's running mate.

Laird's assault drew no comment from Humphrey, who was campaigning in Florida, nor from Muskie, in New Hampshire.

Laird associates indicated the Defense secretary will get into the campaign in the role of defending the administration's program, which has involved a gradual withdrawal of U.S. troops and the concurrent buildup of the South Vietnamese forces to defend themselves.

A Laird aide said it is unlikely the secretary will make any outright partisan speeches but that "I wouldn't be surprised if he accepted speaking invitations from former congressional colleagues."

Ghana Leader Made Big Mistake

ACCRA, Ghana (AP) — Ghana's deposed prime minister appears to have made one major mistake—he applied his austerity program to the army.

Lt. Col. I. K. Acheampong, leader of the army coup which overthrew Ghana's two-year-old civilian government Thursday, accused Prime Minister Kofi Busia of hypocrisy, government mismanagement and corruption.

He specifically charged Busia with undermining the army's morale by taking away privileges it enjoyed even in the days of Kwame Nkrumah, the free-spending dictator ousted by the army and police in February 1966.

As part of his austerity program to help pay the foreign debt of nearly $600 million that Nkrumah ran up, Busia reduced military pay and special allowances and opportunities for training overseas.

The coup was staged while Busia was in London for treatment of an eye ailment, and the officers appear to be firmly in control of Accra, the capital. But it was not clear late Thursday whether they had full control of the rest of the country.

No violence was reported, but members of Parliament and government ministers were arrested, and Busia's wife and daughter were reported being held under heavy guard at the prime minister's residence.

Normal communications links with the outside world were shut down, and most government offices were closed Thursday.

Groups of women in Accra celebrated the change of government by powdering their faces with white chalk and wearing white headbands—a sign of victory—while dancing in the streets.

Civil servants and other urban workers, who were particularly hard hit by Busia's austerity measures, cheered the new government as they rolled into town for work in jammed buses whose drivers honked their approval.

The coup leaders suspended the constitution, dissolved Parliament and banned all political activity.

Acheampong, 40, a British-trained career officer with some schooling at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., announced in a broadcast that the nation would be led temporarily by a national redemption council. He said it would be made up of army officers, tribal chiefs and representatives of the chamber of commerce, bar association, trade union congress and religious councils.

Acheampong, the father of six children, is described as a good soldier, an idealist, a "rough and ready guy" who "runs a good battalion." Like most of Ghana's military elite, he is considered pro-Western.

Busia, in London, called the coup "selfish and senseless" and predicted the people would rise against it.

"I know the vast majority of Ghanaians appreciate what we are doing and that my government has their full support and loyalty," Busia said. "I have no doubt that the regions will not back this desperate act of a small section of the army based in Accra."

No Parole Data for Jury

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A jury deliberating in a criminal case is entitled to know how soon the defendant would be eligible for parole if given a prison term, right?

Wrong.

That was one of the principles of law established by the Arkansas Supreme Court in rulings since the summer 1971 recess.

The principle was set forth in a unanimous opinion by Chief Justice Carleton Harris Nov. 1 in a case styled Patrick L. Andrews v. the state of Arkansas.

In the opinion, Harris wrote: "Their duty (the jury's) is to determine ... the punishment that should be meted out for the crime that has been committed, and such judgment should not be influenced by any event that might occur at some time in the future ..."

Elsewhere in the same ruling, Harris said that if a jury convicts a defendant the jury then has "only the duty of imposing such punishment as may be considered to be appropriate."

The Supreme Court concluded in that case that possible time of parole was an item of information that should not be given to the jury and that a judge, if asked for that information by a jury, should reply that it was improper for the trial judge to answer the question "... and an answer might well constitute reversible error."

The ruling does not apply to cases prior to Nov. 1, 1971, however.

In another case, the court held that, in line with a U.S. Supreme Court ruling, a defendant must be advised that he has the right to an attorney and, if he cannot afford one but wants one, a lawyer will be appointed for him prior to any police interrogation.

The warning given the defendant in that case was held to be defective because it contained a statement saying that if the defendant could not afford a lawyer but wanted one, a lawyer would be appointed "if and when you go to court."

The court ruled in another case that a defendant's right to due process was not violated by being subjected to additional punishment under the state habitual criminal law when defendants under other prosecutors were not subjected to that law.

And in a case where the court split 4-3, the judges ruled that a 17-year-old hunting with a high-powered rifle and wounding a fellow hunter would not be held to the same standard of care required of adults engaged in the same activity.

DEAR HELEN:

I have an idea that by the time you receive this you will already have the answer to who authored the poem on children you quoted last December. He is Kahili Gibran of Lebanon, a poet, philosopher and artist who died of tuberculosis in 1931 in the United States. He wrote many of his books in his native language but during the last 20 years of his life, lived in America and began writing in English. His most famous work, "THE PROPHET" from which the poem comes, has sold more than two million copies and is still going strong. Perhaps you didn't recognize it because the poetry was taken out of context. I know others would like to hear the whole piece, and so I'm sending it along. —L.V.E.

DEAR L.:

I'd say, judging from my mail, that "THE PROPHET" is the second-best loved book in America. Never have I been so deluged with mail—and almost every one of these hundreds of writers took time to write out the whole poem, wanting to share it with me and others.

Really, I'm awfully embarrassed about asking the name of the author—because, you see, I too have a copy of THE PROPHET and love it. May I share the whole poem with you? —H.

And a woman who held a babe against her bosom said, "Speak to us of children," And he said: Your children are not your children. They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself. They come through you, but not from you. And though they are with you yet they belong not to you. You may give them your love but not your thoughts, For they have their own thoughts. You may house their bodies but not their souls, For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams. You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you. For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday. You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth. The Archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far. Let your bending in the Archer's hand be for gladness, For even as He loves the arrow that flies, so He loves also the bow that is stable.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MRS. GRADY R. HOLLIS

The Oak Forest United Methodist Church, at Little Rock, was the setting Saturday, January 8 at 7:30 p.m. for the candlelight wedding of Miss Debra Leah Irvin and Grady Ronald Hollis.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Arnold Irvin, Little Rock, and Mr. and Mrs. Grady Pearl Hollis of Carthage, Mississippi.

The Reverend Robert W. Trieschmann, of Nashville, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

An altar arrangement was of white gladioli fugi mums, green and white pom poms flanked with four spirals, entwined with greenery, stephanotis, and white bows, holding tall white tapers. The family pews were marked with aisle candles, trimmed with greenery and holding single white tapers. A single white taper lighted each window of the church.

Mrs. Virginia Hollingworth, organist, presented a program of pre-nuptial music, and accompanied her daughter, Miss Raellyn Hollingworth, who sang "The Wedding Song". Candles were lighted by Miss Donna Lee Hollis, sister of the bridegroom and Charles Michael Irvin, brother of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of candlelight wool. It was fashioned with a scooped neckline and long sleeves trimmed with white fur at the wrists. The gathered skirt fell from a fitted bodice and featured an inverted pleat at the back waist, which extended into a chapel length train. Fur edged the hemline and train. Her veil of illusion fell in soft tiers from a bandeau of wool. She carried a cascade of white sweetheart roses baby's breath, feathered carnations with accents of forest green velvet leaves. Her only ornament was a gold cross, gift from the bridegroom.

The bride paused to present both mothers with a long stemmed red rose.

Miss Carla Craig, Little Rock, was Maid of Honor, Bridesmaids were: Miss JoAnn Irvin, sister of the bride, Miss Debbie Hollis, sister of the groom, and Miss Cathy Woodall, cousin of the groom.

They were gowned in emerald green velvet, fashioned after that of the bride. They wore a large velvet bow in their hair, and carried crescent shaped bouquets of fugi mums, pale yellow sweetheart roses and white and green pom poms with floor length streamers.

Little Miss Michele Irvin, sister of bride, was flower girl. Her green velvet gown was a miniature of that worn by the honor attendants, and she wore a velvet flowered bandeau in her hair. She scattered rose petals from her basket trimmed with green net and ribbon streamers. Preston Fedricks, of Kosciusko, Mississippi was best man. Groomsmen were Jimmy Talbert, David Nelsen and Jim Craig all of Little Rock.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Irvin chose mint green crepe with complimenting accessories and a green cymbidium orchid at her shoulder.

Mrs. Hollis, mother of the bridegroom chose gold crepe with a gold cymbidium orchid pinned at her shoulder.

Mrs. W.B. Ruggles, maternal grandmother of the bride wore beige suit with matching accessories. Mrs. C.M. Irvin, paternal grandmother of the bride wore navy blue with matching accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall.

After a wedding trip to North Arkansas and Missouri, the couple will make their home at the Broadmoor Apts. in Pine Bluff. The bridegroom is with the International Paper Company there.

Guests from Hope and Ozan attending the wedding were: Mrs. W.B. Ruggles, Mrs. Sidney Churchwell, Miss Nellie Ann Churchwell, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Allen and Dennis all of Hope. Mrs. C.M. Irvin and Mr. and Mrs. Milam Green of Ozan.

Pro Bowl Is Ultimate, Not Just Another Game

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — "This is the ultimate—it's not just another game," says Dallas Coach Tom Landry.

For the Cowboys and Miami Dolphins, the ultimate—the kickoff for Super Bowl VI—arrives Sunday in Tulane Stadium at 2:30 p.m., EST, with national television coverage by CBS.

"You try to convince yourself that this is just one more game. You try to say you've got to look at it the way you look at any other one," says Landry.

"But you just can't, no matter how much you try. Let's face it, this is what it's all about. This is what 26 teams are shooting for at the start of the season."

For the Dolphins, a relatively young squad which has rocketed from an also-ran to the ultimates in just two seasons, it's a new experience.

For the Cowboys, it's just one more championship—and another chance to shake the not-wholly-deserved image of "blowing the big ones."

Dallas, which went into last year's Super Bowl as the favorite, then lost to the Baltimore Colts 16-13, are the oddsmakers' pregame pick again, this time by a touchdown.

But that doesn't please Landry, who says it can work against the favorite.

"Perhaps being favored can hurt a bit. It can make a team overconfident, can make them let up just a bit—although I don't think that'll happen in our case."

"Conversely," he said, "being the underdog can cause a team to play over its head, I just don't what effect, if any, it'll have on either of us."

Miami Coach Don Shula agrees with Landry's assessment.

"I don't pay attention to odds. No team is going to lose to you. You have to go out and win. They certainly should be the favorites."

In the past three Super Bowls, the odds have had no relation to the outcome. Each time the underdog has come out on top.

Sunday's clash features two clubs with both solidly steady and potentially explosive offenses. On defense, too, they're remarkably similar, although the oddsmakers say it is defense which gives Dallas the edge.

At quarterback, each has a relatively young but highly polished performer.

For the Cowboys, it's Roger Staubach, a third-year player from Navy who won the starting role from Craig Morton in midseason and, with Landry shuttling in the plays from the bench, has taken Dallas to nine successive victories.

For the Dolphins, it's Bob Griese, a five-year veteran from Purdue, who calls his own game.

Hope, Bradley Teams Split Pair

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Although the Hope Kittycats pushed their seasonal record up another victory, the Ladycats couldn't do the same as last minute foul trouble killed their chances.

Tonight, beginning at 6:30 p.m., Hope hosts Ashdown in Jones Field House.

Taking an early lead, the Kittycats went on to glide by Bradley's Junior girls for a 47-41 win, and their tenth victory against four losses.

With Gail East ripping the net for the first seven points, and Pogo Griffin getting two more on a turn-around jumper, the Kittycats took hold of a 9-3 margin with 1:36 left in the period.

Later, moving into the second stanza with an 11-4 lead, Hope again started finding the range, but so did Bradley and as a result, the Kittycats took only a five point, 27-22, lead into the dressing room at halftime.

Starting into the second half of play, Hope received the tipoff and scored immediately on Griffin's free shot from the line. With both teams scoring a total of nine points each during the quarter, Hope took a 36-31 margin into the last period after Griffin put one through the net at the buzzer. For the first couple of minutes it looked as if Hope had suddenly lost their shooting touch as Bradley, behind the shooting of Kim Calvin, came back and took a 39-38 margin with 3:05 left in the game. But Hope wasn't to be denied and with some good foul shooting, the Kittycats pulled ahead and iced the game away.

Griffin hit 27 points, East popped in 19, and Sue Henley added one, while the defensive trio of Janie York, Bonnie Roy and Melissa Reese played another fine game.

In the second contest, the Ladycats had a hard time of it as they fell behind in the last minute on foul shots, to lose a close, 56-48, thriller to the Bradley girls, lowering their record to six wins against seven losses.

Falling behind 3-0, the Ladycats came back to tie the score six times during the period, the last as the quarter ended.

Tied up at 13 all while moving into the second period, Hope took the ball first, and on Bradley errors, scored three field goals in a row for a 19-13 lead with only a minute gone. However, each team managed to stay close to the other and looking for a break here and there to put them in front.

Bradley found the break just before the half, as Sarah Allen hit a free throw with 53 seconds to go and came back with seven seconds showing to dump in a two-pointer and a 33-30, halftime lead for the Bears.

Determined not to go down in defeat, the Ladycats broke out for the second half of play and matched Bradley point for point, before taking a slim 40-39 lead into the fourth and final period, after Janet McCain hit a charity shot with 34 seconds left.

Immediately hitting trouble, the Ladycats hit a five point deficit, 45-40, giving up six straight points to Allen. After a timeout with 5:10 left in the game, Hope tried desperately for a comeback with a three point play by Gigi Gladney and foul shots by Dee Singleton.

However, as fate once again hit the Ladycats, last minute foul trouble while trying to get the ball from the Bears, who were stalling, produced seven foul shots for Bradley, with Allen hitting four of four in between to ice down the game.

McCain hit 21 points, Singleton made 20, and Gladney put in seven, while Allen did most of the damage with 36 points. Guards Sandra Hamilton, Judy Reyenga, Betty Ruth Honeycutt, Carol Frazier, and Janice Hobson played the defensive zone, stealing the ball a few times and getting the rebounds up court to the offense.

Lady Umpire Ruled Legal

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — New York's highest court has struck out the New York-Pennsylvania Baseball League and the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues in their efforts to keep a lady umpire out of professional baseball.

The Court of Appeals' 5-2 decision against the baseball organizations fortifies lower court decisions that unlawful discrimination was practiced against Mrs. Bernice Gera.

The 41-year-old housewife from Queens has been trying since her 1967 graduation from Florida Umpire School to get into pro ball.

Hope Star SPORTS Stars Perk Up, Bounce Squires

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

What a relief! It wasn't a long losing streak, and it was on the road away from the home fans, but the Utah Stars are glad it's over.

The Stars got dumped by Kentucky, Indiana and New York before bouncing the Virginia Squires 128-119 Thursday night.

Utah, leading the American Basketball Association West Division, closed off almost everyone on the Squires but Charlie Scott, who scored 44 points. But while Scott was running wild for Virginia, the balanced Utah attack took a 12-0 lead at the outset and never trailed.

Zelmo Beaty scored 31 points for Utah while James Jones and Ron Boone had 23 each and Willie Wise got 21.

Scott received offensive support from rookie Julius Erving with 20 points.

In other ABA games, New York defeated the Floridians 110-94; and Pittsburgh topped Denver 118-116.

Seattle beat Baltimore 112-107 in the only National Basketball Association game Thursday night.

Rick Barry scored 35 points in the Nets' third straight victory, and Floridians' fourth loss in a row. Barry hit six points as the Nets jumped to an 8-0 lead. New York once held a 102-82 lead in the fourth quarter.

Team captain Bill Melchionni added 15 points for New York while rookie John Roche scored 18. Mack Calvin led the Floridians with 20 points; Warren Ja-hali scored 16 and Lonnie Wright 15.

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Arkansas golfer Richard Crawford shot an even par 72 Thursday in the first round of the $140,000 Bing Crosby National Pro-Am Golf Tournament at Pebble Beach, Calif.

Miller Barber was farther back at 77.

Jack Nicklaus held the first-round lead with a six-under-par 66.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Heavyweight champion Joe Frazier will enter many homes Saturday night via television. Most fight followers feel the visit will be a short one.

Devaney May Bow Out

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — Bob Devaney, who as head coach of Nebraska has won two consecutive national football championships, says he may retire. If he does, he'll do so without ever being chosen Coach of the Year.

Shortly after a vote Thursday of the American Football Coaches Association chose Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama and Harold "Tubby" Raymond of Delaware as coaches of the year in their divisions, Devaney said he is considering stepping down from his coaching post of 10 years.

"I've been thinking about it after each of the last three seasons," he said. "I'm going back home and make a decision within a couple of weeks."

"It's a lot better, I guess, to step out when you're at the top

Nicklaus Leads Crosby Meet

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — "Well, we'll just see if we can make it five out of six, and then six out of seven ..."

Jack Nicklaus, winner of four of his last five starts, had just fired a brilliant six-under-par 66 for a three-stroke lead in the first round of the Bing Crosby National Pro-Am golf tournament Thursday and was looking ahead to the weekend.

"Sure, I'd like to keep it going, but it's not going to happen," the powerful Golden Bear said, then grinned.

"How many did (Byron) Nelson win in a row? Eleven?"

Well, if I won 10 I'd want to win 20, but it's not going to happen."

Nicklaus, making his first start of the season, had seven birdies, missed six other times from 12 feet or less and was threatening to run off and hide from the rest of the field until he suffered his only lapse on the 18th hole.

A six-iron second shot hit the branch of a tree and the ball dropped straight down. He chipped poorly and two-putted for his only bogey.

That reduced his four-stroke lead to three over 1971 PGA Player of the Year Lee Trevino, tied for second at 69 with Paul Moran and Larry Mowry.

The group of seven at 70 included England's Tony Jacklin, rookie Lanny Wadkins, Al Gei-berger, Dale Douglass, Bill Johnston, Tom Weiskopf and Mike Morley.

But some of the game's big stars had their troubles on the three Monterey Peninsula courses being used for this unique event—Pebble Beach, Spyglass Hill and Cypress Point, where Nicklaus played.

Defending champion Tom Shaw had a fat 77. So did Sam Snead. Masters champion Charles Coody was well back with a 73. Billy Casper had a 75. George Archer, a playoff winner Monday in the Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open, took a 76.

Arnold Palmer is not competing. It was all Nicklaus on the chill, sunny day, with big Jack missing the course record by a single shot.

Wrestling Matches Here

Napoleon vs the Reverend

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — They call Dallas' Tom Landry "the Reverend T. L." Miami's Don Shula is "Little Napoleon."

Landry is a tall, slender man of 47, partially bald. Gray hair at the temples, almost completely humorless, so soft-spoken one has to turn his hearing aid on high to get the message.

He could be mistaken for a bank clerk or a church deacon, the latter of which he probably is.

Shula is built like a fire hydrant. A onetime defensive back, at 42 he looks capable of going out on the field and swapping jolts with the behemoths he coaches. He speaks in a strong, authoritative voice, laughs and kids a lot and enjoys a reputation among his peers of being a "man's man."

Shula's chief worry this week preceding the super bowl has been an expanding waist line. There are sharp physical and personality differences but in coaching philosophy there are many parallels between the pair who must radiate the thought waves in pro football's big championship game Sunday.

Both are strong on organization and dedication, sticklers for detail and hard work. Landry is a cold computer, criticized by some as being too intellectual for his muscled pupils. Shula is the inspirer—not in the Knute Rockne blood and tears tradition—but a man capable of exhorting others to super effort.

Shula, brown-haired, square-jawed and apparently lacking in guile, considers himself a disciple of the Paul Brown-Weeb Ewbank school, which stresses play execution and avoidance of errors.

Shula played seven years in the NFL with the Browns, Colts and Redskins, and coached at Virginia and Kentucky before entering the pro coaching field in 1960.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Braille, a system of raised dots for touch reading and writing by the blind, was developed by Louis Braille, who himself was blinded in an accident at the age of three. The World Almanac recalls that, as a teacher of the blind in Paris, he simplified Charles Barbier's system of writing with points by using six raised dots in various combinations.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

Vascular Disease Not Specific Term

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—Much has been said on heart and vascular disease, yet we find the term vascular disease used in other terms of illness. Just what is vascular disease? Can it be part of arthritis?

Dear Reader—Correctly speaking, vascular disease means disease of any of the arteries, veins or the small connecting vessels between the arteries and veins called capillaries. Since the vascular system of arteries, veins, and capillaries are everywhere almost any disease process can involve the vascular system. The most common form of vascular disease is atherosclerosis, or fatty deposits in the arteries. This can be located anywhere in the body, causing strokes, heart attacks, poor circulation to the legs with trouble walking, kidney failure and other problems. Vascular disease technically includes varicose veins and other vein disorders. Even hemorrhoids are a vascular disease.

By now you are getting the idea that the term vascular disease is not a very specific term. We use it to help us classify disorders, just like digestive diseases include indigestion, constipation, and even gallbladder disease. When it is necessary to speak about something more specific, other words have to be used, like coronary artery disease to mean involvement of the arteries to the heart.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I coughed up a tape worm. Do you

See if you can work out the way expert South managed to get himself set at four hearts.

East took his ace of clubs and returned the five. South knew enough to go up with his king. Then he cashed his ace of spades and let a diamond toward dummy. West went up with the ace; cashed the queen of clubs and put dummy in with a diamond. Meanwhile East had embarked on a plan of false-carding with 10s and nines. He didn't do it sensationally. His first diamond play was the deuce. Then he dropped the nine when West led the queen of clubs and played the 10 next while retaining the seven.

Expert South was in dummy and let a heart. East played the 10, another false card, and South successfully finessed his jack.

THOUGHTS

Thus says the Lord,
"Though they be strong and many, they will be cut off and pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.—Nahum
1:12.
As sure as God ever puts
His children into the furnace,
He will be in the furnace with them.—Charles H. Spurgeon, English clergyman.
Thou wilt always rejoice in the evening, if thou spend the day profitably.—Thomas
A. Kempis, German theologian.
I wish that all were as I myself am. But each has his own special gift from God, one of one kind and one of another.—1 Cor. 7:7.
Each man has his own vocation; his talent is his call.
There is one direction in which all space is open to him.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.
"Thus says the Lord of hosts. Render true judgments, show kindness and mercy each to his brother,
do not oppress the widow,
the fatherless, the sojourner, or the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart."—
Zechariah 7:9, 10.
Kindness is the golden chain by which society is bound to gether.—Johann
Goethe, German dramatist.
"True instruction was in his mouth, and no wrong was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many from iniquity.—Malachi 2:6.
Some men never do anything wrong simply because they never do anything.—
Roger Babson, statistician.
I wonder why it is that we are not all kinder to each other than we are. How much the world needs it!
How easily it is done.—
Henry Drummond, Scotch author.
It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in man.—Psalms
118:8.
Confidence is a thing not

TREASURE a-plenty

Believe it or not, everyone has some type of treasure. It may be that traditional, most sought after one of material wealth. Or perhaps the oft-ignored ones of good health, a fine education, loyal friends or a loving family. Or it may be the greatest treasure of all: eternal life through Jesus Christ.

But no matter what our treasure is, we need to pause occasionally and take stock of that which we have. We need to see whether or not our treasure is being wisely used. We need to see if we have become so concerned with getting our treasure that we hoard it for a never-to-come rainy day instead of using and sharing it.

After all, what determines the value of something? Is it the thing itself, or, what can be done with that thing? We have treasure a-plenty in a world that has needs a-plenty. Make your treasure really valuable by using it to help alleviate those needs.

So They May See

Psalm 19

So They May Hear

THE HEAVENS DECLARE the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handy-work.

2. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

3. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

4. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

5. Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

6. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

THE STATUTES of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

9. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

10. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

11. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12. Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13. Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

14. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

Dogs Sniff Explosives

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Aviation Administration is having dogs trained to sniff out hidden explosives in an effort to thwart hijackers and saboteurs.

Fairfax County, Va., police begin training the dogs today under a $34,000 FAA contract.

If the program is successful, the FAA plans to use the animals at Washington's National and Dulles International airports.

FAA Administrator John N. Shaffer said, "Although the dogs involved in the test program are intended for use at the two FAA-operated airports only, the concept could be adopted by other airports as well, thus further increasing the odds against successful hijackings or acts of sabotage."

After a 20-week training course, the four German shepherds will be tested for 45 days at National Airport before a decision is made whether to permanently adopt the program.

In a preliminary test at Dulles a year ago, dogs were able to sniff out explosives on persons and in luggage or cargo.

Officials said the dogs should be especially useful in quick checking and clearing of airplanes grounded by a bomb threat or hoax.

Invites Ping Pong Players

WASHINGTON (AP) — Presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler, just back from a trip to Peking, says Premier Chou En-lai suggested Chinese table-tennis players visit the United States soon.

It was the seven-day visit to mainland China last April of the U.S. table-tennis team that cracked the isolation of the Communist Chinese, an event that led indirectly to Nixon's forthcoming visit.

Ziegler said he told Graham Steenhoven, president of the U.S. Table Tennis Association, that Chou personally suggested a Spring visit by Chinese players this spring.

Chou said his nation's players should come to America "when the blossoms are in full bloom."

Black Pepper Contains Fungi

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — A University of Minnesota professor says the average gram of black pepper contains 53,000 tiny colonies of fungi.

"I used to pepper practically everything, but now I use it only on my eggs," Clyde Christensen, a professor of plant pathology, said. "My wife won't eat pepper anymore."

Christensen has done microscopic analyses of more than 100 pepper samples over the last few years.

In nearly every instance, he said, he found that "black pepper is just loaded with fungi."

He said some of the fungi are capable of producing toxins, meaning possibly harmful poisons, but he said, no toxin has been found in pepper because pepper ingredients apparently neutralize them.
